CHURCH WORK
AMONG COLORED PEOPLE
in the Diocese of North Carolina.

The Diocese of North Carolina as indicated on the map by the lines on the East and West and bounded by East Carolina and the Jurisdiction of Asheville, is composed of thirty-seven counties, with a total population of about 800,000 persons, of whom about 300,000 are Negroes.

There are sixteen mission stations reaching into twelve counties and leaving twenty-one counties untouched by Church influences.

Three Chapels have been consecrated; two are almost ready for consecration; two to be built from foundation and eight unfinished.

St. Ambrose, is on ground owned by the State and badly located for successful work. It is our desire to erect a neat, substantial building in a more suitable locality and make this the centre of our Church influence.

We have purchased, at Littleton, a farm of forty acres, on which there are two dwelling houses and a barn and propose to open an Industrial Farm and School in September. These buildings can be used as they now stand. The rescue of young boys from idle and thriftless lives will be the aim and object of this school.

OUR NEEDS ARE URGENT.

We need for buildings in the Archdeaconry of North Carolina, for the work among the Colored people, the following amounts: Moncure, $200; St. Luke's, Ridgeway, $200; Satterwhite, $300; Concord, $500; Warrenton, $500; Wilson, $500; Statesville, $500; Durham, $700; Littleton, $1,250 and Raleigh, $3,000.

Contributions marked "Building Fund" may be sent to the Bishop or the Archdeacon.

J. H. M. POLLARD,
Archdeacon.
RALEIGH, N. C.

The work among the colored people of this Diocese is most encouraging, but it is impossible to raise in the Diocese the money needed for building purposes. I most heartily endorse the above appeal of Archdeacon Pollard.

JOS. BLOUNT CHESHIRE,
Bishop of North Carolina.
